Executive Field Summary

360-degree camera jobsite capture platform built specifically for restoration contractors and adjusters, combining automated floor-plan sketching with carrier-ready estimating workflows.

Core Capabilities & Restoration Workflow Fit

Single-click 360° room capture using off-the-shelf cameras, automated 2D/3D sketches exported to Xactimate/Symbility, remote estimating support, and AI-assisted scope recommendations.

Corporate Ownership & M&A Verification Note

Independent privately held restoration documentation and estimating software vendor.

Procurement Due-Diligence & Field Watch-Outs

Verify per-sketch processing fees, turnaround time guarantees during storm surges, and whether Enhanced Estimating add-ons require human review before carrier submission.

Ecosystem & Software / Distribution Integrations

Verisk Xactimate, Cotality Symbility / DASH, Albiware, Xcelerate, and standard 360° camera hardware (Ricoh Theta / Insta360).

Practitioner Frequently Asked Questions

Q: How does DocuSketch compare to Matterport for daily residential water losses?
DocuSketch prioritizes lower hardware cost using consumer 360° cameras and restoration-specific sketch/estimating workflows, whereas Matterport offers LiDAR digital twins with broader commercial/CRE usage.

Q: Does DocuSketch generate Xactimate-compatible sketches?
Yes; DocuSketch delivers dimensionally scaled floor-plan sketches ready for import into Xactimate and competing claims estimating platforms.

Q: What training is required for field technicians using DocuSketch?
Field techs place a tripod-mounted 360° camera in each room and trigger capture via mobile app, shifting complex sketching work from the field to office estimators.
