Practitioner Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who owns EFI Global, Inc.?
EFI Global is a wholly owned subsidiary and technical consulting arm of Sedgwick Claims Management Services.

Q: When do restoration contractors interact with EFI Global?
On fire origin-and-cause holds, structural collapse assessments, contested wind/hail causation claims, and commercial mold/asbestos industrial hygiene clearance testing.

Q: Why must contractors wait for EFI Global clearance before removing fire debris?
Disturbing potential ignition sources or failed appliances before forensic origin-and-cause inspection can trigger spoliation of evidence claims and jeopardize subrogation recovery.
