Executive Field Summary

National property claims support and ladder-assist specialist deploying trained technicians for steep/high roof inspections, emergency tarping, and structured field documentation on behalf of insurance carriers.

Core Capabilities & Restoration Workflow Fit

Steep/two-story ladder assist for carrier adjusters, standalone roof/exterior damage inspections, drone imagery, emergency board-up/tarp dispatch, and Hancock Adjuster Portal tracking.

Corporate Ownership & M&A Verification Note

Independent operating property claims inspection company backed by private equity (Cornell Capital acquired Hancock Claims Consultants in September 2026; founder Brad Hancock remains an investor).

Procurement Due-Diligence & Field Watch-Outs

Restoration estimators meeting a Hancock field technician on-site should prepare organized test-square photos, repairability documentation, and manufacturer brittle-test evidence cleanly for the carrier desk adjuster.

Ecosystem & Software / Distribution Integrations

Hancock Adjuster Portal, carrier claims platforms, XactAnalysis, and aerial imagery/drone deliverables.

Practitioner Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who acquired Hancock Claims Consultants in 2026?
Private equity firm Cornell Capital acquired Hancock Claims Consultants in September 2026, with founder Brad Hancock remaining an equity investor.

Q: Does a Hancock Claims technician make claim coverage decisions?
