Executive Field Summary

Veteran Pacific Northwest manufacturer of slide-in and direct-drive truckmount extraction machines (Titan, Boxxer, CDS), portable flood extractors, and specialty restoration cleaning chemicals.

Core Capabilities & Restoration Workflow Fit

CDS clutch-drive van truckmounts, Boxxer/Titan slide-in extractors, weighted flood extraction tools (Xtract), hose reels/tanks, and companion extraction chemistry.

Corporate Ownership & M&A Verification Note

HydraMaster operates under parent company Universal Cleaning Concepts, LLC (private-equity-formed parent entity that acquired HydraMaster's brand and assets), disclosed under Option B parent-badge rules.

Procurement Due-Diligence & Field Watch-Outs

Compare direct-drive CDS van chassis compatibility (Ford Transit/GMC Savana) vs. slide-in models, and confirm distributor technician support in your metro area before buying.

Ecosystem & Software / Distribution Integrations

Distributed through national and regional restoration supply dealers across North America.

Practitioner Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Who owns HydraMaster today?
HydraMaster operates under parent company Universal Cleaning Concepts, LLC—it is not owned by Nilfisk, Legend Brands, or Aramsco.

Q: What is HydraMaster's signature line for water restoration vans?
HydraMaster's CDS (Clutch Drive System) direct-drive units and Boxxer/Titan slide-in extractors are widely deployed across residential and commercial flood-extraction fleets.
